ADVISORY COUNCIL VACANCIES GROUNDWATER USERS ADVISORY COUNCIL PHOENIX ACTIVE MANAGEMENT AREA

The Phoenix Active Management Area announces two vacancies on its Groundwater Users Advisory Council (Council). This Council is one of five established under the Groundwater Management Act to advise and to review and make recommendations on groundwater management programs and policies to the area director, as well as the Director of the Department of Water Resources.

Each council is comprised of five members who serve staggered six-year terms. The Governor appoints Council members. Senate confirmation is not required. The Phoenix AMA seeks to appoint Council members on the basis of their knowledge, interest, and experience with development, use, and conservation of water. A.R.S. §45-420 requires that the members of the Council represent groundwater users in the AMA. Under state law, Council members serve without compensation, except for travel and subsistence reimbursement while engaged in business of the Council.

The term of office for the open Council positions expires January 17, 2006. Ideal candidates will have a background in and knowledge of water resource management issues. Applicants are expected to have a vision for the future of the Phoenix AMA and the role of water management.

Persons interested in this Council appointment should be prepared to:

- Attend monthly meetings,
- Review groundwater management issues and reports, and
- Recommend to the Director of ADWR the appropriate level for groundwater withdrawal fees, as well as
- Annual conservation assistance and augmentation grant awards.

Meetings generally are held on the first Wednesday of each month, from 9:30 a.m. until noon.

If you are interested in serving the State of Arizona in this capacity, please submit a letter of interest by close of business November 30 to:

Mark Frank, Phoenix AMA Director
Arizona Department of Water Resources
500 North Third Street
